The client shall undertake to pay all fees, commissions, interest and other due amounts, as indicated in the Tariffs of the Bank, including exchange rate differences (in case the Bank performs currency conversion upon a received transfer in a currency, different than the currency in which the account is maintained).

Authorization of payment operations

5.8. A payment operation is considered authorized from the moment, in which the Client (Payer) has:

5.8.1. Submitted a duly signed payment order (upon effecting a credit transfer or cash operations), submitted a mass payroll order (for transfer of salaries) or has given a written consent in a branch of the Bank (upon effecting a direct debit) or

5.8.2. With a remote method she/he has:

a. Submitted a payment order or has given consent through the online banking or mobile banking channel, while observing the specific requirements for operation through this channel;

b. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

c) Upon receipt of a payment order at the Bank, sent by the Client through a payment initiation service provider (PISP).

5.9. The Bank shall perform the payment operations under Item 5.4 of this Section, while keeping the cut-off time for receiving orders, the deadlines for execution and fee allocation principles, specified in FCTBC. When the payment order has been received on a non-working day or received on Saturday (in the branches of the Bank, which are open on Saturday), it shall be considered as received on the next working day.

5.9.1. In case by the cut-off time for receipt of payments to be processed within the current day, there is no balance provided in the account in order to effect the payment order, the Bank shall return the payment document to the Client or shall make it available for her/him in the branch where it has been submitted;

5.9.2. A payment order through online banking shall be submitted once-off for processing in the Bank's accounting system.

5.9.3. An order for a direct debit shall be submitted within business hours for work with clients of the Bank's respective branch, on condition that the payer is the holder of the current account with UBB. No cancellation of the order shall be possible after its receipt by the Bank.

5.9.4. (amended on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022) The client may deposit his/her/its direct debit consent with the Bank, in which she/he/it indicates terms and conditions, under which the Bank is to debit her/his/its account upon a beneficiary's order. In case the conditions indicated in the consent do not occur, as well as there is no sufficient disposable balance on the client's account within 5 business days from receipt of a direct debit order, the Bank shall refuse to execute the direct debit order and shall inform the payment services provider thereof.

5.9.5. The client may submit a mass order for payroll of its employees, as for this purpose she/he/it has to provide in advance an electronic file or a hard copy list of its employees' data.

5.9.6. (in force as of 13.05.2019) Periodic payments shall be effected after filling in and submitting an Order for periodic transfer in view of effecting automatic recurring payments - a sample form, stating the following:

- Account of the Client from which periodic payments will be made;
- Data about the beneficiary and its bank account (beneficiary's name, IBAN, bank and the bank's BIC code);
- Amount of the requested periodic payment;
- Day of the month for effecting the payments, on which the client's account will be debited with the indicated amount. In the cases when during various months such day is either a non-business one or non-existent, the payment shall be effected on the next business day;
- Payments' recurrence (frequency). The client shall select the transactions' frequency with the following options: one, three, six, nine months or one year;
- End date (date of last payment). Date on which the last payment will be made. In case such date has not been specified in the recurring transfer order, the latter shall be in effect until canceled (for an unlimited period of time);

Periodic payments may be:

- Intrabank payments (in the system of UBB) in the following currencies – BGN, EUR, USD, CHF and GBP. Fund transfer in foreign currency shall only be made in case the payer's and the beneficiary's accounts are in one and the same currency.
- Interbank payments – routed to other banks on Bulgaria's territory – they shall be effected only in BGN.

In case the periodic payment is to be effected on a non-business day or on Saturday, it shall be effected on the next business day. Periodic payments shall be with a transaction limit of up to BGN 10 000 or up to 5 000 currency units for intrabank transfers. In case there are not sufficient funds in the client's account, the periodic payment shall not be effected.

Instant BLINK payment in BGN

5.9.6.A. (new, adopted on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022) Instant BLINK payment in BGN is a credit transfer in BGN, executable 24/7, 365 days a year, with an immediate or close to immediate processing and posting accounting entries to the beneficiary's account within seconds from payment initiation, being executed with the participation of payment services providers, certified and participating in the BLINK programme of the National Card and Payment Scheme, part of BORICA AD.

5.9.6.B. (new, adopted on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022) The Bank shall accept for execution an order for instant BLINK payment in BGN only via online and mobile banking, from an account in BGN, for an amount smaller or equal to BGN 30 000 (thirty thousand Bulgarian leva), excluding fund transfers to the State Budget, as well as provided that the payment services provider of the beneficiary is certified and available participant in the BLINK programme of the National Card and Payment Scheme, part of BORICA AD. The payment shall be processed with value date - the calendar date, on which it is received.

5.9.6.C. (new, adopted on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022) In case, the credit transfer meets the criteria as per the preceding article, it shall be executed as an order for instant BLINK payment in BGN, unless the Client deactivates the option for instant payment prior to submitting the credit transfer order for execution at the Bank.

5.9.6.D. (new, adopted on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022). Upon failure to execute an order for instant BLINK payment in BGN, the Bank shall inform the client by sending a free of charge PUSH, Viber or SMS message to the client's mobile phone number, registered with the Bank.

5.9.6.E. (new, adopted on 25.05.2022, effective as of 20.06.2022) The Bank shall accept incoming instant BLINK payment in BGN at any time with value date - the calendar date, on which the respective instant payment is received and only provided that the beneficiary's account is in BGN.

5.9.7 The client may cancel the payment and withdraw the submitted payment order only if its account has not been debited up to the moment of withdrawal. The bank administration costs for the cancellation shall be at the expense of the Account Holder and up to an amount, as determined in the effective FCTBC.

5.10. After a written notification to the Account Holder, the Bank may refuse to apply some of the forms for cash or electronic payment on account, including to refuse the effecting of a transfer in foreign currency in order to observe international requirements or risk limits of the Bank, as well as unfulfilled obligations under contractual relations with UBB.

5.11 The Bank reserves itself the right to change the cut-off time specified in the Tariff for receipt of payments, of which it shall notify the Client, according to the terms and conditions of Section I hereunder.

Additional documents

5.12. In case of cross-border fund transfers, as well as in case of payments between residents and non-residents within this country's territory, all documents, required pursuant to the Foreign Currency laws shall be provided.

5.13. Pursuant to the effective legislation and upon request by the Bank, the Client shall present a written declaration on the origin of funds.

Currency conversion

5.14. Upon a received or ordered fund transfer in foreign currency, different than the currency in which the account is being maintained, the Bank shall perform ex-officio currency conversion (arbitration) upon terms and conditions, specified in FCTBC.

5.15. Information on the exchange rates, applied by the Bank during the execution of payment operations, can be obtained in the banking halls and through online banking, as the used exchange rate shall be the one valid as of the transaction's time.

Non-cash foreign currency operations with funds in a current account with value date on the same day or up to two business days from the day of negotiating a specific deal

5.15a (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) The Bank provides its Business clients with a possibility to effect a foreign currency exchange electronically with the funds available in their current accounts with regard to the currencies, with which the Bank operates, with value date on the same day or up to two business days from the day of negotiating a specific deal. The relations between the Bank and the Client in connection to such foreign currency operations shall be settled by the provisions under 5.15a – 5.15h hereof, which by accepting the present Terms and Conditions, the Client shall be deemed to have accepted as a contractual agreement with the Bank regarding the terms and conditions on concluding such deals.

5.15b (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) The Bank provides information on the current exchange rates for purchase-sale of foreign currency respectively at a teller desks or electronically in the office premises, on the Internet page of the Bank, on the home page of the electronic banking and the mobile banking application.

5.15c (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) The Bank shall be entitled to amend the official exchange rates within the same day, as this amendment shall not pertain to already negotiated but unpaid deals as at the moment of the amendment.

5.15d (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) A currency deal within the meaning hereof, may be concluded in person at an office of the Bank or through remote negotiation (via telephone with a currency dealer, or the currency exchange module in the electronic or mobile banking). Business clients can contact a currency dealer directly via the phone, as all telephone calls with the numbers 02 811 24 49/39/42/45/11 related to purchase-sale of foreign currency are recorded by the Bank, for which the Client shall render its consent by accepting the present General Terms. The rule as per the previous sentence shall be applied in case the Bank changes the telephone numbers for acceptance of foreign currency deals conclusion.

A deal concluded in person or remotely, shall be deemed concluded and shall become irrevocable for the parties as from the moment of reaching an agreement between the Client and the Bank with regard to the following deal parameters:

- 1) amount and currency of the purchased, respectively sold by the party currency and sum;
- 2) payment and delivery - at a teller desks or electronically. In case of a teller operation, the following operation - payment and delivery, should be mandatory effected electronically;
- 3) the exchange rate of the deal;
- 4) value date of the delivery. In case of non-cash deals (between the client's accounts), negotiated by the Client via electronic banking, the value date of the delivery can be on the day of negotiation (i.e. the same day), on the following day or on the second business day after the day of negotiation. Deals at a teller desks are concluded only and solely on the day of negotiation;
- 5) the Client's bank account, of which the sold foreign currency is to be collected, if applicable;

5.15f (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) Upon effecting purchase-sale of foreign currency electronically the Client shall undertake to provide in the account, specified by him/her, available funds of the sold currency, which is sufficient to carry out the operation no later than the end of the business day of the value date of the deal. By accepting the present General Terms, the Client gives its prior written consent as per Art. 21 of the BNB dated 18th April 2018, on the terms and conditions and procedure for opening payment accounts, for execution of payment operations and for use of payment instruments, on which basis the Bank shall be entitled to collect ex officio and unilaterally and/or as per the direct debit procedure, on the maturity date or after it, from the Client's account/s, opened with the Bank, all due amounts in relation to a concluded but unpaid foreign currency deal in accordance with this item. Upon lack of funds on the account or upon negotiation of the deal via telephone without duly depositing of an order in the Bank, the latter shall deem the deal canceled and shall perform ex officio a reverse deal (to the initially concluded one) as it applies the official as at the respective moment exchange rates of the Bank, as in this case the Bank may ex officio and unilaterally debit the Client's account/s opened with it, for repayment of all amounts in relation to the exchange differences arising from the reverse deal.

5.15g (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) In case the Client wants to purchase or sell foreign currency against Bulgarian lev, the deal will be executed at the respective buy and sell rates of the Bank for the respective currency to the Bulgarian lev. If the Account Holder wants to purchase or sell currencies other than the Bulgarian lev, the Bank will execute the deal by using the buy and sell rates for the respective currencies to the Bulgarian lev or by applying a direct cross rate, in case it is explicitly agreed with the Bank for the particular deal under the conditions of 5.15d above.

5.15h (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 18.11.2019) If the Client wants to carry out a purchase-sale of foreign currency, which amount of a one-off deal, calculated as per the BNB exchange rate for the respective day, exceeds BGN 10 000, the Client may negotiate a preferential exchange rate with the Bank.

Right of refusal to effect ordered payments and ex-officio operations

5.16. (amended on 31.05.2022, with effect from 20.06.2022) The Bank may refuse to effect a payment order from and to a Client's account in case of ambiguity in the representative power of the person, submitting the payment order; unclear or illegibly filled in documents; lack of required documents relating to the payment; imprecise instructions; availability of international sanctions in relation to individuals, institutions or countries, related to the order, submitted by the Client, as well as in the cases from and to the countries, as indicated in the General Information for UBB AD clients on embargo, restrictions and sanctions, etc. The Bank does not accept customers involved in any kind of virtual currency activities (crypto currencies, bitcoins, etc.) and does not provide payment services related to such currencies, including, but not limited to any crypto currencies platforms.

5.17. In case since the latest active operation on account a period of over six months has elapsed (or other period according to the Bank's judgment), UBB shall apply additional measures for identification of the Client's representative, including also photocopying an identity document.

5.18. In case of erroneously received funds in an account of another holder due to an error of a Provider of payment services and regardless whether the Client is the payer or beneficiary of the transfer, the Bank shall be entitled to debit ex-officio the account with the amount of the incorrect transfer, by notifying the Client of the performed corrections. When funds have been received in the account as a result of fraud, the Bank shall be entitled to debit ex-officio the account with the respective amount and to effect an ex-officio rectification transfer to refund the improperly received amounts in an account of the payer or in an account of the payer's supplier of payment services, regarding which the Client gives her/his unconditional and irrevocable consent by accepting these General Terms and by signing the account agreement.

5.19. On the grounds of Ordinance № 3 of the BNB UBB is entitled to collect ex-officio from the account amounts, payable to it by the Account Holder, under receivables of UBB (i.e.: payment of interest, repayment installments under loans and credit cards, expenses for notification and collection of receivables, etc.), as well as under fees and commissions, payable to it by the Account Holder for rendered banking services, pursuant to the Tariffs, as of the moment of the amounts' deduction. If there are no funds in the particular account, the amounts may be collected from all other BGN or foreign currency accounts of the Account Holder with the Bank. In case the currency in the account/s is different than the currency of the debt, the Bank shall be entitled to purchase an amount equal to the amount of the debt (at the exchange rate of UBB for the debt currency), by also deducting the expenses made.

VI. REMOTE METHODS FOR ACCESS TO ACCOUNTS/CREDIT LIMIT AND EFFECTING OF PAYMENTS

General principles for issuing, using and closing of remote access payment instruments

6.1. (amended on 02.09.2019, effective as of 14.09.2019) Each Client may also dispose of his/her/its accounts/granted credit limit remotely, by using remote access instruments, as follows:

6.1.1. Online and mobile banking - after conclusion of a separate Agreement for online banking.

6.1.2. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.2. (amended on 02.09.2019, effective as of 14.09.2019, on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) The Bank shall issue the payment instrument, for which an agreement has been signed and shall deliver it to the lawful representative/ proxy/ together with the respective personalized security features, while ensuring its keeping secret from its employees and third parties;

6.2.1. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.2.2. The generated passwords for online banking on hard copy are provided to the Client within a term of 5 (five) work days after their declaration.

6.2.3. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.3. Upon effecting transactions, the Client shall undertake to observe the security instructions for the respective instrument, given by UBB and shall monitor its periodic updating on the Bank's web site.

6.4. (amended on 02.09.2019, effective as of 14.09.2019, on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) The remote access payment instruments shall be used only personally by the individuals, authorized by the Client (representatives by law or by proxy) with no third party authorization possibility.

6.5. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) The Client shall undertake to use the payment instrument issued to him/her and the respective means for its use and to store them duly and safely, by protecting them from being lost, stolen, forged, from unauthorized access, or usage in another illegal manner.

6.5.1. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) Each Client shall be obliged to regularly monitor the transactions with a remote access payment instrument and their reflection in the accounts in the Bank, as described herein.

Notification in case of suspicion for illegal use and blocking

6.6. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) In case of suspicion for illegal use of a payment instrument the Client shall immediately notify the Bank.

6.7. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) The Client shall immediately notify the Bank of a destruction, loss, theft, some other unlawful deprivation, forgery or illegal use, disclosure of the secrecy of the respective personalized security features, related to the payment instrument, as well as of performing an operation with the payment instrument, which has not been authorized by the Client and of an error or irregularity in administering the account, found by him/her.

6.8. After notification in accordance with Item 6.6 and Item 6.7 the Bank shall block the payment instrument.

6.9. In case that the client uses the online or mobile banking service, the notification may be performed through one of the following 2 channels: At the Client Contact Center's phone number stated at www.ubb.bg or at a branch of the Bank, by submitting a data change form.

6.10. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.11. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.12. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.13. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

6.14. The Client's access to online/mobile banking, as well as the performance of payment operations through online/mobile banking may be blocked unilaterally by the Bank under the following conditions:

- For objective reasons, related to the security of the identification data or of the system and/or upon reasonable suspicion for unauthorized by the Client orders, submitted through online/mobile banking through the use of the means of authentication.
- When the Client or a representative of theirs breaches with their actions the requirements of the active normative acts, of the current General Terms, endangers the security and the correct functioning of the service.

6.15. The bank shall notify the Client about the blocking of access/performing of payment operations and about the reasons, if possible, before the blocking or at the latest - immediately after that, unless the provision of such information is not allowed due to security considerations or the adherence to the normative requirements.

VIA. ACCESS TO A PAYMENT ACCOUNT FOR THE PURPOSES OF SERVICES FOR INITIATION OF PAYMENT AND SERVICES FOR PROVISION OF INFORMATION ABOUT AN ACCOUNT

6.15. A. When the payment account of the Client is accessible online, the Client has the right to grant third parties access to their payment account - suppliers of payment services for initiation of payment and payment services for provision of information for an account.

6.15. B. The client has to take reasonable care when choosing, assigning and using an AISP or PISP.

6.15. C. The Bank is not a party under the agreement between the Client and the respective AISP/PISP. The Client is entirely liable for the choice of AISP/PISP for determination of the conditions, under which the respective suppliers shall provide them such services, as well as to secure that these suppliers shall adhere to the relative to them arrangements between the Bank and the Client, related to these services. More specifically, the Bank shall accept incoming payment orders, related to a payment account of the Client and requests for information for a payment account of the Client, submitted through AISP/PISP and provided that it successfully identifies the Client, as outgoing from the Client. The Bank bears no responsibility for the provision by the Client to AISP/PISP of their personalized means of access to the payment account with the Bank. Supplier of payment services under provision of information for an account (AISP) does not have the right to submit orders for execution of payment operations from a payment account of the Client with the Bank.

6.15. D. The Bank has the right to refuse AISP/PISP access to the payment account in case that it establishes or has reason to think that it is present with unauthorized access or access to the payment account of the Client with fraudulent intent by AISP/PISP, including unauthorized initiation of a payment operation or initiation of a payment operation with fraudulent intent. In the cases described in the previous sentence, the Bank shall take the necessary measures to inform the Client, unless when the provision of such information is not allowed due to security considerations or in light of the adherence to normative requirements, obstructing the informing of the Client.

VII. ONLINE BANKING, MOBILE BANKING AND ELECTRONIC NOTIFICATIONS

7.1. UBB clients have access to the online banking (Internet banking on an electronic address <https://ebb.ubb.bg>), 24 hours a day, without a day off, as the payment orders are executed during the Bank's work hours, in accordance with the designated in the Tariffs dead lines for accepting and processing of BGN and currency transfers. 7.9.A. (new, adopted on 13.12.2021, effective as of 14.12.2021, amended on 03.05.2022, effective as of 16.05.2022) The legal representative(s) of the Client shall have the option, through the Administration menu, to receive information about existing accesses rights, to create users, to add, change or remove access rights - of the individuals, designated by him/her to use part of the services, offered via UBB Online, respectively via UBB Mobile, on behalf of the client.

7.9.B. (new, adopted on 03.05.2022, effective as of 16.05.2022). Adding and changing of access rights as per Item 7.9.A. to information (reference) services, as well as rights for creating documents shall be made after filling in the respective data and generating a request in Administration menu, subject to signature by the legal representative(s) of the Client in the manner, as indicated in Item 7.3.2.

7.9.C. (new, adopted on 03.05.2022, effective as of 16.05.2022). Adding and changing of access rights as per Item 7.9.A. to services, related to disposal of the Client's accounts, shall be made after filling in and generating an electronic Data Amendment Card, subject to signature with Qualified Electronic Signature and submitting it at the Bank via the Digital portal platform, while observing the requirements of the UBB AD General Terms and Conditions on the use of Digital portal platform, or depositing it in a branch of the Bank, observing the authorization requirements, listed in the current General Terms, and after having a Power of Attorney presented by the legal representative(s) of the Client in a branch of the Bank, regarding the individual, authorized as per the current Item 7.9.C, as well as stipulating the respective rights.

7.9.D. (new, adopted on 03.05.2022, effective as of 16.05.2022) The legal representative(s) of the Client shall have the option, in the Administration menu, to remove the access to the online and mobile banking of users, registered in the system. Upon using this functionality, no other rights of the users shall be limited, used for the purposes of representation before the Bank, granted by the lawful representative(s), or by another duly authorized person, including, but not limited to, effecting payment operations in a branch of the Bank. Access of those users to the online and mobile banking can be requested again in accordance with the procedure, as agreed herein.

7.10. Transfers through the online banking channels shall be effected, while observing the following terms and conditions:

7.10.1. Transfers between residents and non-residents, as well as cross-border transfers shall be effected while observing the requirements of the Currency Act and the enactments on its application. In case that in accordance with the effective laws additional documents, apart from the statistical form, are required (document-detailing the reason for effecting the transfer, declarations for financial loan and others), these shall be provided to the servicing branch, from which the Client disposes of its account, by 15.30 h. on the current day;

7.10.2. The bank may demand the provision of additional documents in electronic form or on a hard copy with regard to the execution of a specific transfer order by the Client, in accordance with the requirements of the active legislation.

7.10.3. Payment documents with specified future value date for execution shall be processed on the date indicated in the payment document, as the processing shall be effected automatically one- off at the beginning of the system day, upon ensured sufficient available balance in the account as of the end of the previous day.

7.11. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) Clients receive information after execution of an operation, as it is their personal responsibility to regularly acquaint themselves with this information.

Mobile banking

7.12. Upon signing an online banking agreement the Client is being provided with the opportunity to make inquiries on the accounts, requested for access via online banking, as well as to effect particular transactions via the specialized application for mobile devices on iOS and Android operating systems, called mobile banking.

7.13. The instructions and technical requirements on installing and using the application, as well as the comprehensive list of transactions and services, accessible through the mobile application, are described in online banking Channels section on www.ubb.bg, as well as in Security Recommendations and FAQ sections of the specialized mobile banking application.

7.14. The rules and regulations for online banking in the present General Terms shall also be applicable to the mobile banking, unless indicated otherwise herein or in the online banking agreement.

7.15. In order to activate the mobile banking application, the Client shall authenticate himself/herself by entering his/her user name, login password and code, sent to his/her mobile phone, valid for online banking. For access, inquiries, registration for services and placing payment orders to the Bank the Client shall authenticate himself/herself by entering the PIN code or finger print and an embedded software token set for the mobile application upon activation.

7.15.A. (new, adopted on 05.07.2021, in effect as from 22.11.2021). The app ensures an opportunity for the Client to become informed of and to allow the effecting of payment transactions in the manner, stated in Art.7.15, under payment documents, created in the online banking functionality by persons, to whom document creation rights have been granted in accordance with the procedure, stated in the present General Terms.

7.16. The signing of a Client's instructions to the Bank during the execution of operations through the mobile banking application via a PIN code or a fingerprint login shall have the effect of an electronic signature within the meaning of the Electronic Document and Electronic Authentication Services Act (EDEASA), as, on the grounds of Art. 13, Para.4 thereof the Bank and the Client shall agree that in their mutual relations they shall deem such signatures handwritten.

7.17. In case the Client operates with the specialized application through a compromised (rooted or jailbroken) device, upon each and every login in the application there will be a warning message on the screen of the device. The Bank shall not be held liable for payment operations, effected through using the specialized application from a compromised (rooted or jailbroken) device.

Electronic notifications

7.18. (With effect from 01.07. 2019) The Bank's clients may subscribe for the Electronic Notifications service at a branch of the Bank. Through this service they will receive information via SMS/Viber/e-mail for their account movements and monthly account balances and via SMS/Viber for transactions with bank cards, as by submitting the request they also acknowledge acceptance of the terms and conditions for using the service, integral part thereof.

7.19. (With effect from 01.07.2019) A fee shall be due for the sending of SMS/Viber messages as per the Bank's Fees and Commissions' Tariff. The Bank reserves its right to send a determined by it number of free-of charge SMS messages to the mobile phone number, stated by the Client to the Bank, concerning transactions with bank cards, as the Client shall be entitled at any time to explicitly refuse their receipt at a branch of the Bank.

7.20. (new, adopted on 05.07.2021, in effect as of 22.11.2021). Clients of the Bank, who are Cardholders of bank cards, issued to accounts of Business clients, and have a concluded agreement with the Bank for online banking and an activated specialized mobile device application for mobile banking - UBB Mobile, may activate a functionality in UBB Mobile for receipt of push notifications for transactions, effected with a debit/credit card(s), issued to the account, at an ATM or POS terminal device, thus accepting the terms and conditions on using the service. Within the meaning hereof, a push notification shall be a notification in the form of a short message, sent by the Bank to the Client and displayed on the screen of the mobile device, where UBB Mobile application is installed and activated. In this case, the Account Holder shall explicitly accept and agree that upon activation by the respective Cardholder of the push notifications for card transactions for an already subscribed for paid notifications debit/credit card, free of charge and paid SMS/Viber messages for transactions effected with that card shall no longer be sent. Upon deactivation of the push notifications for that card, sending of free of charge and paid SMS/Viber messages shall not be renewed automatically, however, the client may renew it in a branch of the Bank, via the Online banking or through the Bank's Client Contact Center. For remaining purchased, but unused, SMS or Viber messages, they can also be used after the renewal until fully spent.

IX. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES

General provisions

9.1. The bank shall not be held responsible for deals and legal relations, with regard to which the respective payment instrument or bank account is being used. The client shall be held responsible for all actions and obligations, originating from the use of a payment instrument or a bank account, including after terminating the agreement.

9.2. The Client shall be obliged to use the bank account, opened by the Bank, or the payment service, provided by the Bank, in compliance with the effective legislation, these General Terms and the applicable special terms for the respective bank account or payment service. The Client shall be obliged to act with due care, as she/he shall neither use the bank account or payment service, nor shall he/she permit third parties to use those for performing actions or achieving goals that are prohibited by law or may infringe upon the Bank's reputation.

9.3. In case of imposing restrictions on the part of local or foreign government authorities, which impede the effecting of a transaction and block the latter, UBB AD shall inform the Client immediately as well as render him/her the necessary assistance.

9.3.1. UBB AD shall not be held liable for transaction amounts, blocked due to order of either local or foreign government authorities, in accordance with imposed restrictions.

9.4. The Bank shall be entitled to block at any time the utilization of the account by the Client, including blocking entirely or partially the available funds in the account, as well as the payment instruments, used to access the account, in case of information that funds have been received in the account as a result of a fraud. For this act of the Bank the Client gives her/his unconditional and irrevocable consent by accepting these General Terms and signing the account agreement.

9.5. The Client shall be held responsible for orders, submitted by individuals, who have not been duly authorized through the Client's fault, such as: for example, who have presented a letter of attorney, compiled by the Client and containing vague provisions or individuals, to whom a payment instrument has been provided by the Client, which instrument is intended for personal use only.

9.6. The user of payment services, who has ordered the payment, shall be held responsible for the consequences occurred as a result of the wrongful or imprecise filling in of payment documents. Upon submission of an order for mass payroll to its employees, the client shall bear responsibility for the full correspondence between the submitted file/list of the employees' data and the completed payment order.

9.7. The Bank and the Client shall not be held responsible for the non-performance on their obligations in relation to an agreement for using a payment instrument or a payment account, having occurred as a result of extraordinary technical reasons, such as information systems' failure, communication lines' disruption, electricity outage and others, as well as in case of extraordinary circumstances, such as natural disasters, general strikes, technical malfunctioning, which are beyond their control.

9.8.1. (amended on 02.09.2019, effective as of 14.09.2019) The bank shall not be held responsible, in case a payment operation has been refused due to technical or communication reasons in the systems of other operators, banks or other entities, involved in the payment process.

9.9. In the cases of remote submission of payment orders, the Bank shall maintain an archive of the conversation with the Client and all initiated operations through the respective channels. As a proof in case of chargebacks the archived data for each effected operation shall also be reviewed.

9.10. In case of a disputed payment operation on the part of the Client, the latter shall bear the burden of proof that either its execution has not been authorized by it and/or that the operation has been imprecisely executed by the Bank. The Bank and the Client shall agree that in the cases when the Bank has registered utilization of a payment instrument through its personalized security features, those shall be considered sufficient evidence that the payment operation is authentic and has been authorized by the Client, unless proven to the contrary by the latter.

9.11. In the cases when the Bank is held responsible for imprecisely effected, erroneous or unauthorized operations, in order to engage its responsibility, it is a mandatory condition for the Client to have informed the Bank without unjustified delay of the imprecise, erroneous or unauthorized transaction, after receiving information about its effecting.

9.11.1. Notification without unjustified delay shall mean the same will be done no later than 1 (one) day from the moment when the Client has found out for the executed, but unauthorized by them transaction;

9.11.2. In the cases when the Client has concluded an agreement for online banking with the Bank, unjustified delay shall be considered the expiry of more than 1 (one) day of effecting the disputed payment operation.

9.11.3. In all cases unjustified delay shall be considered the expiry of more than 14 (fourteen days) from the moment, in which the Client has received or respectively could have received (had such option been chosen) a statement on the movement on its account.

9.12. The Bank shall be held responsible for the damages, inflicted upon performing of unauthorized or imprecisely effected operations upon the use of a payment instrument, on condition that all individuals, using payment instruments on behalf of the Client, have performed on their obligations for protecting the personalized security features of the payment instruments and their obligations, listed in the current General Terms.

9.13. The Bank shall not be held responsible, in case representatives/ employees of a Business Client have acted with the aim to commit fraud or they have not observed their obligations for protecting the payment instrument and/or of its personalized security features and/or and the timely informing due to malice or utter negligence. Utter negligence shall mean the following non- exhaustively listed cases of failure to protect either the payment instrument and/or its personalized security features on the part of the Client:

9.13.1. The Client has failed to observe the requirements and the recommendations of the Bank, described in Security Section, published at the online banking page or the security recommendations, described in the Mobile banking application, with regard to payment operations, effected through online or mobile banking. The Client is obliged to inform himself/herself on a regular basis about amendments and supplements to those recommendations, as well as to observe them;

9.13.2. The Client has allowed the disclosure to and utilization by a third party of the former's means for electronic authentication, described in detail in Item.7.2 and 7.3 with regard to payment operations, effected through online banking.

Imprecisely ordered payment operations – imprecise unique identifier (international bank account number – IBAN)

9.14. The Bank shall not be held responsible for reimbursement of the amount of a payment operation in case of a valid, but incorrectly stated unique identifier on the part of the payer. In this case the Bank shall employ reasonable efforts in view of reimbursing the amount of the payment operation, for which the Client shall owe a fee, as specified in the Bank's Tariff, irrespective of the reimbursement efforts' outcome.

Imprecise text data

9.15. In the cases when imprecise text data has been stated upon effecting a fund transfer, the stated unique identifier (IBAN, with respect to bank accounts) shall have a priority.

Imprecisely and wrongly effected payment operations

9.16. The bank shall be held liable for consequences, occurred as a result of imprecisely effected orders of the Client.

9.17. When as a result of imprecisely effected by the Bank, but correctly filled in payment order, an account with an account holder, different than the stated in the payment order, has been credited, the Bank shall reimburse to the payer the amount of the imprecisely effected payment operation by the next business day, after it has been notified by the payer or after it has established the error itself, by initiating a rectification transfer through the beneficiary's provider of payment services.

9.18. In case the client is a beneficiary of an imprecisely effected transfer, as a result of error of another payment institution, the Bank shall be entitled to effect a rectification transfer upon the request of the payer's provider of payment services within one month of the date, on which the payer's provider of payment services was informed of the error. The Bank shall make the correction within 5 days of receiving the rectification request from the payer's provider of payment services.

Operations unauthorized by the user of payment services

9.19. In case of a payment operation disputed by the Client, the Bank shall refund to him/her the amount subject to the unauthorized operation if it has been informed by the Client about the unauthorized payment operation in line with these General Terms and if the Client has proven that the payment operation has not been authorized by him/her and/or has been performed inaccurately by the Bank in accordance with Item 9.10. of this Section. The Bank shall not be held liable for, nor shall it reimburse amounts to Clients, when the latter have failed to observe their obligations for safekeeping the payment instrument and/or its personalized security features and/or the timely notification due to malice or utter negligence.

9.20. The Bank shall refund to the Client the value of the unauthorized operation and when necessary, shall restore the account of the Account Holder to its state preceding the unauthorized operation, in accordance with the stated in this section, within a period of up to 40 (forty) days of receiving the notification.

9.21. The Bank shall ensure to the Client the possibility of informing it of unauthorized transactions at any time night and day, including on non-business days.

9.22.1. In case unauthorized transactions have been effected after the moment of notification, the Client shall not bear any financial damages, unless it has acted through fraudulent means.

9.23. (amended on 16.03.2020, effective as of 27.05.2020) The establishing of malice or utter negligence in relation to observing the Bank's instructions for protection of the payment instrument may also be effected through: investigation by the Bank; through litigation; upon investigation by police authorities or through other appropriate methods. The Client shall provide its consent to render full cooperation for clarifying the circumstances subject to check.

9.24. In case of unsubstantiated chargebacks on the part of the Client, proven through the respective procedure, for transactions, actually effected by it or contesting the amount of such transactions, the Bank shall be entitled to terminate its relations with the Client, with regard to any used product, including also by making several or all of its receivables from the Client callable ahead of schedule.

X.TERMINATION AND CANCELLATION OF AGREEMENTS FOR ACCOUNTS AND PAYMENT INSTRUMENTS

Terminating an account agreement

10.1. In case the particular account agreement does not have a specified period or a special condition for termination, the Client may terminate the account agreement at any time without notice, on condition that, it does not have liabilities to the Bank, distraintment imposed on the account, nor are the receivables thereunder collateral under a loan used by the Client or a third party. For the purpose the Client shall submit in any branch a request for account closing, according to a sample form of the Bank.

10.3. The bank may close an account, as follows:

10.3.1. with a written advance notice of 14 (fourteen) days, without providing the arguments for its decision, sent to the most recent address provided by the Client. In case the client is not found twice on different days at the address, the advance notice shall be considered as delivered.

10.3.2. after expiry of the period, for which the account has been opened or occurrence of a resolutive clause, specified in the agreement.

10.3.A (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 25.11.2019). Upon terminating a current account agreement, all deposits opened thereto shall be terminated as well.

Termination of an agreement for online banking

10.4. The agreement for online banking is signed for an indefinite period of time. The agreement shall specify a period for termination with a notice by either the Client or the Bank.

10.5. In case of submitted notice for termination of the agreement, the Bank shall execute the operations ordered by the Client before receiving the notification.

10.6. Upon termination of the agreement the Client shall be obliged to return all devices, received from the Bank in relation to using the payment instrument. Upon termination of the electronic banking agreement, the access to the profile through the Mobile banking application shall be terminated as well.

10.7. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

10.8. (deleted, with effect from 27.05.2020)

Termination of contractual relations with regard to payment services

10.9. (amended on 11.11.2019, effective as of 25.11.2019) The bank shall be entitled to terminate the agreements for one or all accounts of a certain client and terminate the other agreements for payment services upon non-performance on obligations, specified in the current General Terms, the particular agreement with the Client, breach of obligations under another agreement, signed with the Bank or obligations of the Client, stipulated in the effective legislation, when these obligations concern the relationship between the Bank and the Client. The specific grounds (and not only limited to those) may be as follows:

10.9.1. Providing by the Client of incorrect, imprecise or incomplete data to the Bank, irrespective of the legal relations between the Bank and the Client;

10.9.2. A representative of the Client shows bad manners in his/her relations with the Bank (behaves rudely, arrogantly, smears the bank's good reputation etc.);

10.9.3. The reputation of the Client in public is controversial or according to the Bank there is sufficient data, that the Client breaches the effective laws.

10.10. (amended on 11.11.2019, effective as of 25.11.2019) In case of termination as per Item 10.9, the Bank shall inform the Client, with which the former shall provide the latter with a reasonable period for disposing of the remaining account balances, returning of devices, property of the Bank etc.

Cancellation of agreements for accounts /payment instruments

10.11. (deleted, effective as of 25.11.2019)

10.12. (amended on 25.05.2021, effective as of 28.05.2021) The Bank has the right to close an account of a Client, who has not paid the fee for its maintenance over a 6 (six)-month period..

10.13. (new, adopted on 11.11.2019, effective as of 25.11.2019). Upon termination of a current account agreement on the part of the Bank pursuant to Item 10.3.1, Item 10.3.2 and Item 10.9, the Bank shall accrue a fee for storage of cash funds on the available balances in the terminated account/s, which the Client has not disposed of after the termination, in amount specified in the Fees and Commissions Tariff for Business Clients.

XI. GUARANTEEING OF DEPOSITS

Guarantee amount and scope

11.1. The aggregated available funds on all deposits, opened in the name of a Client, irrespective of the currency, in which they have been opened, are guaranteed in amount up to BGN 196 000 (one hundred ninety six thousand leva).

11.2. In case the deposits opened by the Client are more than one, in order to define the total amount of the Bank's obligation, all amounts in those shall be summed up. Amounts in foreign currency shall be paid in their BGN equivalence, calculated at the BNB's exchange rate for the day, determined by the Bank Deposits Guarantee Fund (the Fund) as the initial date for repayment of the guaranteed amounts of deposits.

11.3. In case there is an account in favour of a third person/entity, entitlement to receive a guarantee under the account shall have the person/entity, in whose/which favour the account has been opened (the beneficiary), unless the agreement provides for otherwise.

11.4. The Bank shall provide the Client with basic information about the guaranteeing of its deposits, the amount of the guarantee and the applicable deposit guarantee mechanism, by providing a Depositors' Newsletter, being an integral part of the account agreement. The newsletter shall contain updated information as of the date of signing the agreement, as its parameters may be changed upon amendments to the legislation. The Bank shall undertake to maintain up-to-date information about the guaranteeing of deposits, which information shall be displayed on the information boards in its branch network, as the Client shall undertake to keep himself/herself periodically informed from them.

Accounts not covered by the guarantee

11.5. Guaranteed amounts of deposits with the bank shall not be paid to:

- Other banks, when the deposits have been opened on their behalf and at their expense;
- Financial institutions, pursuant to Art. 3 of the Credit Institutions Act;
- Insurance and reinsurance companies under Art. 8 of the Insurance Code;
- Pension insurance companies as well as compulsory and voluntary pension insurance funds;
- Investment intermediaries;
- Collective investment schemes, national investment funds, alternative investment funds and special purpose vehicles;
- Budget organizations under § 1, Item 5 of the additional provisions of the Public Finance Act;
- Investor Compensation Fund, the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund and the Guarantee Fund under Art. 287 of the Insurance Code.

11.6. No guarantee shall be provided for deposits having originated from or related to deals or actions constituting money laundering within the meaning of Art. 2 of the Measures Against Money Laundering Act, or financing of terrorism within the meaning of the Measures Against the Financing of Terrorism Act, established by a final judgment.

11.7. Deposits shall not be paid if their holder has not been identified pursuant to Art. 3 of the Measures Against Money Laundering Act as at the date of issuance of a deed under Art. 20, Para. 1 of the Bank Deposits Guarantee Act.

Mechanism for guaranteeing deposits and procedure for payment

11.8. In case of revoking a license for carrying out banking activity, the Fund shall pay the liabilities of the Bank to the Client up to the guaranteed amounts. The payment shall be made through one or more banks specified in a list by the Management Board of the Fund.

11.9. Within a period of not later than two business days prior to initiating the payment of amounts, the Management Board of the Fund shall be obliged to announce in at least two central daily newspapers and on its website the date as of which the Bank's depositors will be able to receive payments from the Fund, as well the bank or the banks through which these payments will be made.

11.10. The Fund shall provide the Bank's depositors with access to the amounts subject to reimbursement under the guaranteed deposits not later than 7 business days from the date of issuing a deed under Art. 20, Para. 1 of the Law on Bank Deposits Guarantee.

11.11. In case of extraordinary circumstances provided for in the Bank Deposits Guarantee Act, this deadline may be extended when:

11.11.1. The depositor has no exclusive right over the funds in the account, as the entitlement to receive payment from the Fund lies with the person in whose favor the deposit has been made, unless otherwise provided for in the agreement and on the condition that the latter person has been identified or may be identified prior to the date of issuance of a deed under Art.20, Para. 1 of the Bank Deposits Guarantee Act, but not later than three months as of the date of the deed's issuance;

11.11.2. It has not been established whether a certain person has the legal right to receive the guaranteed amount of the deposit or in case the deposit is subject of a legal dispute; in these cases the deposit shall be reimbursed within 7 business days from the date of notifying the Fund about the settlement of the dispute or the ascertainment of the legal right;

11.11.3. The deposit is subject to restrictive measures imposed by the government or international organizations; in these cases the deposit shall be paid within 7 business days from the date of notifying the Fund about the termination of the effectiveness of the restrictive measures;

11.11.4. The Fund shall reimburse the guaranteed deposits to a branch of a Bulgarian bank in another Member State, but not later than 20 business days from the date of issuance of a deed under Art. 20, Para.1 of the Bank Deposits Guarantee Act.

11.12. In order to receive the guaranteed amount, the Client shall visit the Bank determined to effect the payment, as well as present a valid identity document and sign a declaration certifying that he/she is not a spouse or a relative, in a direct or collateral line of descent up to second degree included, to individuals falling into some of the categories of management, ownership or control of the bank.

11.13. The Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund shall not owe any interest on the guaranteed amounts.

11.14. Any person who claims to be a depositor but has been refused to be reimbursed with amounts of the deposit within the amount under Item 11.1. and within the deadlines under Item 11.10. or Item 11.11., or who disagrees with the amount of the sum reimbursed to him/her, may file its objections in writing within a period of up to three months from the initial date of payment of the guaranteed deposits, with the conservator, temporary administrator or special manager, liquidator, temporary trustee in bankruptcy or trustee in bankruptcy of the bank. The conservator, temporary administrator or special manager, liquidator, temporary trustee in bankruptcy or the trustee in bankruptcy shall render their statement on the objections within a period of 7 days from their receipt. In case the objection is disallowed, the person may claim his/her rights pursuant to the Civil Procedure Code.

12.1. The Bank shall process the personal data of the legal representative of the Client by virtue of and in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA) and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council dated 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation). By signing a contract for opening an account, issuance of a card, using online banking services or another payment service, incl. the services of the Client Contact Center, the Client declares that he/she has read the document Information of UBB AD on Personal Data Processing, which is available on the Bank's website www.ubb.bg and in the Bank's offices and branches, and that, through this document, he/she has obtained information:

12.1.1. about UBB AD as a personal data controller and how to contact the Bank's data protection officer;

12.1.2. about his/her rights with regard to the processing and protection of personal data and how to exercise them, incl. information about his/her right to receive information about the type of data concerning him/her which are processed by the Bank and about their source in case they have not been collected from him/her; his/her right to request from the Bank to delete, correct or limit the processing of his/her personal data whose processing is inaccurate or unlawful; the right of portability of its personal data; his/her right to object against the processing of his/her personal data when this is done based on a legitimate interest of the Bank; his/her right to withdraw his/her consent for processing of his/her personal data for certain purposes, as well as about his/her right to file a complaint to the Commission for Personal Data Protection in its capacity of a supervisory body within the meaning of the General Data Protection Regulation;

12.1.3. about the necessity of processing his/her personal data and the possible consequences in case he/she does not provide these data;

12.1.4. about the grounds for processing his/her personal data, incl. information that the Bank will not process his/her personal data for preparing a client profile and for offering personalized products or services directly without his/her explicit consent;

12.1.5. about the purposes for which the Bank processes his/her personal data obtained under the conditions of the specific Agreement, incl. together with his/her other personal data which the Bank has lawfully obtained from third parties, incl. other personal data controllers, as well as about the right of the Bank to process his/her personal data after it ceases to provide payment services when this is necessary in order to fulfill a statutory obligation of the Bank or to protect its lawful interests in other cases provided for by the law.

XII. PERSONAL DATA

12.1.6. about the recipients to whom his/her personal data may be provided by the Bank in cases provided for by the law – other personal data controllers or personal data processors acting on behalf of the Bank, incl. but not limited to: state and municipal bodies and institutions, insurance and health insurance companies, credit registers and bureaus, persons specialized in risk analysis and assessment, collection of receivables or preventing and finding illegal actions, including crimes; about possible provision of his/her personal data by the Bank in third countries in line with the legislative requirements, incl. performing electronic cross-border transfer of data necessary for effecting international transactions, by providing these data to operators of payment system and other persons specialized in processing transactions with payment instruments;
